01 CATEGORIES

PERSONAL

We understand that unpublished work should receive recognition as equally as published and commissioned work. Whether you are a professional photographer or not, please enter your personal projects in this category

EDITORIAL

From a reportage piece to a book cover, this category celebrates the best in editorial photography within magazines, newspapers, books, and online content

ADVERTISING/MARKETING

The advertising and marketing industries understand the power of the images. This category celebrates work for commercial clients and features campaigns (both still and moving image) in which brilliant photography works in harmony with great creative ideas

STOCK PHOTOGRAPHY

Celebrating images shot for and art directed by image libraries, showcasing the brilliant photography now being created in this important area of photography

FASHION

This category covers all areas of fashion photography (both still and moving image), whether created directly as advertising for brands or for editorial projects in magazines

STUDENTS/GRADS

Here we celebrate the work of those studying on photography courses across the globe, as well as that of those who have graduated in the summer of 2021. Work entered in this category can include personal projects, portraiture, work for clients, and more – anything goes!

02 WHY ENTER?

06 RULES OF ENTRY

1 The Photography Annual is open to independent photographers, students, and anyone commissioning photography, including ad agencies, in-house marketing departments, brands, magazines, publishers, stock libraries, CG houses etc.

2 Multiple entries can be made into the same category.

3 The Photography Annual is open to countries worldwide.

4 Any work entered must have been shot or first published between October 7, 2020 and September 9, 2021 to be eligible for entry.

5 All entrants must complete our online entry form. Entries will not be accepted by any other means.

6 All entries must include an explanatory brief.

7 When entries are submitted on behalf of clients by agencies or other parties, Creative Review will assume client approval has been secured by the entering agency. If any issues arise concerning client sign-off once the entry has been submitted, your entry will be void.

8 All credits must be detailed when entering online. All information provided at the time of entry will be used to credit published work; however Creative Review reserves the right to amend your copy in order to adhere to editorial style where appropriate. If necessary this information may be condensed or edited for space in the issue, so please consider this when making your submission. Creative Review accepts no responsibility for incorrect information provided.

9 Creative Review assumes that all entries are original and are the works and property of the entrant/client the work is submitted on behalf of. As a condition of entry, the entrant grants Creative Review permission to reproduce the works in print and in digital format in relation to the Photography Annual and its promotion and attests that they have the right to grant this permission. The entrant also indemnifies Creative Review against any complaint/action arising out of the publication of the entered images and guarantees that they have sought and received all necessary permissions (including model releases) in relation to the work and its publication by Creative Review. Creative Review will not be held liable for any action or claim arising out of the reproduction of entered works in whatever format.

10 A £35 + VAT fee will be charged per entry. This fee will appear on the checkout page after clicking 'submit and pay'.

11 The judges reserve the right to re-categorise entries if they think another category would be more suitable, and to edit the number of entries in a series to be featured in the final publication. However, judges should not be expected to routinely recategorise incorrectly entered projects.

12 Centaur Media/Creative Review accepts no responsibility for the loss or damage of material submitted.

13 When making your entry you may upload 1-6 related images per entry.

14 Work should be submitted online in the following formats: RGB JPEG or TIF for still images, and for moving image entries MOV files using the H264 codec or MP4 files. Please ensure that the images supplied online do not exceed the maximum upload limit of 50MB per entry.

15 The judges' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding them.

16 Should your work be selected, it will only be published once in the Photography Annual. The organisers will not refund duplicate projects made into different categories.

17 All entrants will be notified as to the status of their entries after the judging is complete. Selected entries will be published in the December/January 2021 edition of Creative Review (on sale in December 2021).

By submitting an entry, you confirm that you have read and agree to the Rules of Entry and understand that these now apply.
